

OUR NEXT-DOOR NEIGHBORS.

Pickings by Star Reporters in Neighboring Cities and Towns.

LEXINGTON, KY.

October 20th is the day to buy stock, land, or household goods, of Thomas H. Irwin.

Col. R. B. Bowler, General Manager of the Kentucky Central Railroad, was in the city Saturday.

The household goods, stock and crops of P. B. Bryant, deceased, were sold last Friday at fair prices.

In the last few days we have experienced a decline in the price of wheat from 7 to 10 cents on the bushel.

Farmers report the apple crop as rapidly disappearing from rot. A general scarcity in this section may be anticipated.

The Lexington Guards have been cused into the State service, Capt. Bush, at the direction of the Governor, performing the honorary service.

Miss Marsh, on Main street, lost a very fine hat from her millinery stock on Saturday last. A colored woman was the thief, but has not been captured.

W. C. Coup's magnificent circus will be here on the 29th. All the children will be happy, and a great many church members, too, who go merely to take their children.

The auction sale of fine jewelry and silverware at Mr. Thomas Calvert's will continue till a sufficient sum of money has been taken in to meet his indebtedness. All should go.

In company with the boot-blacks as a nuisance, the street is in certain localities thronged with men and the pavements something less than knee-deep in tobacco juice on Sunday mornings.

The foundation of the new Phoenix is completed, and it seems to be a good one. The brickwork began yesterday morning. Mr. Wilcox is a rusher, and we may soon expect its completion. So be it.

Another new and beautiful piece of music, "Bonetta, the Sweet Magnolia Belle," has been recently submitted to the public by our highly respected and talented former fellow-citizen, Harry A. Saxton.

Judge Hargis has gone to Frankfort to attend to his official duties. He has completed the depositions in his own case, and is ready for trial. A speedy public vindication of the Judge is anticipated.

With the river so low and coal so scarce the intelligence of a beautiful supply by the Southern Railroad from the Greenwald mines by the 1st of November, is indeed cheering news these cool mornings.

Mr. W. A. Lilly, a young business man of Lexington, and Miss Emma Appleton, daughter of J. W. Appleton, eloped on Sunday night and were married in Aberdeen by Squire Beasley. They returned to the city last evening.

We are sorry to learn that a long list of names of delinquent tax-payers will soon be exposed to the public. Near $40,000 of back tax money is due the city, and the Council has ordered that the property of such persons be sold to satisfy said debt.

It is now believed that the excursion to Richmond, Va., under the management of Major Hutchins will prove a failure. The Ohio River is very low, and as the route was planned over the K. C. R. R. to Massville, thence up the river to Huntington by steamer, which now seems impossible for want of sufficient water, the excursion, by this route at least, will be abandoned.

HARRISBURG, KY.

Mr. John T. Figg and wife are visiting friends in Shelby.

Mr. C. B. Van Audsade is now comfortably located in his new house.

The first quarterly meeting for this year was held at the M. E. Church South in this place Saturday and Sunday last.

Some of our lawyers complain of old times and no business, but we have one who is so constantly employed that he has "no time to read the newspapers."

Mr. L. D. Cardwell, the druggist, was in the city a few days since and made arrangements by which he can furnish our citizens with pianos and organs at the lowest prices.

Messrs. Jo. and Henry Stone, of our county, after harvesting a fine crop of oats, which was evenly ripe, immediately turned under the stubble in order to prepare the ground for wheat, and, it being very dry, they deferred sowing, and in the meantime a fine stand of oats sprang up, from which they have just harvested another good crop.

BELLVIEW, KY.

Let it rain. The old basins will hold it. Making bricks in the brick-yard is now over for this year.

Readings, etc., will be given by the temperance folks to-morrow night.

The new Lodge of Knights of Honor was not installed last night but will be to-morrow night.

An arrest was almost made on Sunday night of parties who it is said were noisy on Berry avenue.

Unless very bad weather takes place the M. E. Church will be ready by Thanksgiving Day, when a big dinner will be given by the ladies of the Church.

At the special meeting of Council last night the contract for the improving of Lake and Center streets was awarded to Mr. John Trapp, of Dayton. Work will begin in a day or two.

LAWRENCEBURG, IND.

The funeral cortege of Miss Francis Stein, yesterday afternoon, was one of the largest seen for some time past.

His Honor, Mayor Roberts, attached a fine and costly of $1250 each on Warren Watts and James Bryant for drunkenness.

The Foundry Ball given at Fahlbusch's Variety Hall, last evening, was one of the best and most quiet ever given in this city.

AUBURN, IND.

The Inaugural Social Belle Hop at Mueller's Hall last evening was one of the balls. All present enjoyed themselves to their heart's content.

The party tendered to Mrs. Peter Roepker by quite a number of ladies and gentlemen of this city last evening was one long to be remembered by all present as one of the most pleasant of the season.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

Marshall Hayward has fully recovered from his illness and is once more at his post.

James Brady of Cleveland, a deaf and dumb man, was lodged in the Station-house last night as a safe-keeper.

Baggage-master Tom Jones, of the C. & C., is doing and will be for several days the duties of Conductor Bradley.

Detective John T. Norris says he will see that our boys get the square deal on the Morgan reward. Now do attend to this, John.

The blankets furnished our station-house are of the sort that tender good solid comfort, which speaks well for their purchaser and the liberality of our city dads.

On the grounds of the Deaver residence on Rodgers street, is a plum tree which has yielded its second crop this season. A finer variety in comparison with the first yield.

Green Wilson, through his attorney, E. S. Wallace, has made application to the Court for a divorce from his wife, Kate, whom he charges with adultery and willful absence.

The Grand Jury at Urbana indicted on Monday James McKelvey and William Nicholas, the young men arrested by Detective Norris for the hurling of stones at passing trains on the C. & C.

A truly rare curiosity may be seen among the many plants surrounding the residence of Mr. Stippes, of Linden avenue. It is a vine which bears a berry that only close inspection will distinguish from the strawberry.

Officer Fred. Foster departed this morning for the Reservoir, where he joins the Dux Moler party. A postal received by Fred, on Monday states that they made a haul of forty fine bass after dark on Sunday night.

The last chat over the Price vs. Rice misunderstanding resulted in the decision being overruled. In consequence the attorneys are made happy, and the public in general await with dread the torture it may bring forth.

Mr. Patrick Welch, of Chestnut avenue, lost by death on Monday morning a little son by diphtheria. The body was interred in the afternoon upon advice of the attending physician. His two other children are still down with it.

HAMILTON.

And now Officer Peterson gets mad and nabs in four on warrants. Just what we expected.

C. B. Weiss, of this city, the well-known "sword-walker," left yesterday on a two-weeks engagement.

Gymnasium meeting to-night, at which will be transacted the unfinished business of the previous meeting.

The Jewish Fair closed last night with a ball. It has proved to be a financial success, and the managers are pleased.

Don't forget that Mr. Wm. Naney has opened a cozy meat and grocery store at the corner of Fifth and Heaton streets.

The ladies of the Baptist Church will give a grand supper and social at the Church on Basin street, this city, on Thursday evening, October 23d. Admission, 15 cents. All are cordially invited.

The Republicans have spared no pains to make the meeting at the Court-house Park to-night one of the affairs of the season. The jollifiers will be dressed in silken uniforms adorned with silver (?) buttons and flowing neckties. Prominent persons will grace the occasion.

Charles McArthur was registered at Barnum's Hotel, St. Louis, yesterday.

Mrs. A. Gray returned home to Nashville yesterday after a pleasant visit to her aunt, Mrs. Banks.

Miss Therese E. Smith, sister of Mrs. Jacob Cohn, left for the West last night to spend the winter.

"Pinafore" picnic next week. Tickets and information can be obtained of W. M. Stephens, Esquire.

The first social of the Sans Souci Club will be held at Odd-fellows' Hall Friday night, October 31st.

"D-n the dummiest!" exclaims the profane Enquirer man. Being religiously inclined we make no comments.

Mrs. Austin, wife of Mr. O. P. Austin, of the Enquirer, left last evening for Iowa, with her little daughter. She will remain during the winter.

Dummay No. 1 jumped the track at Peeling's Field this morning, stuck her nose in the ground, and kicked up her hind wheels. Everybody walked.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met last evening in regular session, seven members present. In the absence of the President, Mr. A. A. Winter was elected President pro tem.

A petition from citizens of the First Ward, stating that they did not deem the bowling-alley in said ward a nuisance, was received and filed.

The committee reported favorably on allowing the bill of Ex-Mayor Gunnison, and the same was, on motion, allowed. Amount, $141.00.

The ordinance in relation to bowling-alley came up for its second reading, and was passed on a call of the yeas and nays.

An ordinance licensing billiard tables was presented, and being put upon its final passage, was carried.

The Mayor made a proposition in regard to the collection of delinquent taxes in his Court, and the matter was referred to the Law Committee, with power to act.

Mr. Irwin Taylor presented a communication relating to the improper assessment of property on Terrace avenue, which was referred to a Special Committee.

The bill of the Street Commissioners, amounting to $33 was allowed.

The German Protestant Church was granted the privilege to hold a concert in their church free of license.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

[Special River Dispatches to the Star.]

BROWNVILLE, PA., Oct. 21—10:27 A. M.—River 3 feet and stationary. Weather cloudy. Wind east.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 21—9:38 A. M.—Kankawha River 6 feet 5 inches and falling. Weather cloudy. Light rain this morning. Wind south.

OTL CRY, PA., Oct. 21—10:00 A. M.—Allegheny River below marks. Weather cloudy. Wind northeast.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21—11:19 A. M.—River 1 inch and stationary. Weather cloudy and cool.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21—Noon.—River 13 feet 5 inches below high-water mark. Arrivals—W. P. Halliday, Cairo, Copeland, St. Louis. Departures this day—Cherokee, Cairo; Belle Shreveport, St. Louis. Weather cloudy.

Cincinnati Live Stock Market.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 21—2 P. M.

The following are the receipts and shipments of live stock for the past 24 hours:

Receipts. Shipments.

Cattle..... 916 219

Hogs..... 326 268

Sheep..... 281 268

Horses—Common selling at $20 to $45, fair to good light at $25 to $35, fair to good heavy at $30 to $40, and select butchers' at $35 to $50 per cental.

CATTLE.—The market is steady and prices unchanged.

SHEEP.—Market quiet and prices unchanged.

The cradle which the King of Burmah has just had manufactured for his child is so magnificent as to cost the State two lakhs rupees. It was first framed with mango wood and then encased with sheet gold inside and out. Over this is ornamental gold work set with diamonds, rubies, sapphires, emeralds and other precious stones. The cradle is swung from a rod by cords made of gold wire, and the bed or cushion is of embroidered green velvet. The baby's wardrobe cost 5,000 rupees.

REVIEW OF THE CINCINNATI DAILY MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 21—2 P. M.

Flour is fairly active and the market easy. Fancy quoted at $1.05; but some favorite brands have a shade higher. Family selling at $2.00 to $2.10. Extra quoted $1.05 to $1.10; superfine $1.05 to $1.10; low grade $1.05 to $1.10. Rye flour at $1.05 to $1.10.

Rye is in fair demand and market quiet and easy, with No. 2 on track selling at 80c. Later sales of No. 2 at 87c on track.

Corn is steady and quiet. Prime mixed car sold at 90c on track. Shelled No. 2 at 49c to 50c, latter in elevator. White corn held 1 1/2c above mixed, and light offerings.

Barley is quiet and rather easy. No. 2 fall sold at 80c. Good to prime sample quoted 80c to 82c per bu. on arrival. Extra No. 3 spring sold at 72c per bu.

Oats are firm and have an upward tendency. No. 2 mixed selling today at 50c and registered at 50c. Sales of light mixed at 50c per bu. While is held at 50c to 52c per bushel.

Wheat: The market is firm to-day and active. Choice red and amber selling at $1.25 to $1.30 per bu. with good to prime sample at $1.25 to $1.30 per bu. Inferior lots down to $1.10, as to quality. Choice white, on track, sold at $1.34 and mixed red and white at $1.22.

MEAT PROVISIONS.

Pork is firm and quiet, and prime city mess quoted $10.25 to $10.50 per lb. net.

Lard is quiet and firm held at 50c to 52c per lb. for current make. Prime winter tallow nominal.

Bacon is quiet and firm. Shoulders, packed, at $1.25 to $1.30, clear rib at $1.30 to $1.35, clear sides at $1.35 to $1.40. Sugar-cured hams at 80c to 82c, as to brand or average.

The market is steady to-day and prices 1/2c higher. Receipts to-day 4322 hams, 5419 pigs, 2421 lards. Sales reported at the Cotton Exchange, 317 bales.

The official quotations are as follows: Ordinary, 9 1/2c; good ordinary, 9 3/4c; low middling, 10 1/2c; middling fair, 11 1/2c; fair, 12 1/2c per lb.

WHISKY.

Has a good demand and the market remains steady and unchanged. Selling today at $1.05 per gallon.

Beans are steady and quiet with ample receipts at $1.00 to $1.05 for choice, fair to prime $1.05 to $1.10 and common at 70c to 90c per bushel.

Butter: The market is firm and quiet. The receipts are ample but not large and the demand is fair, especially for the finer qualities. Dairy-made selling at 17 1/2c for extra sections and 13 1/2c for choice lots on arrival. Creamery at 22 1/2c to 23 1/2c for prime sections and 20c to 21c for sections packed to prime at 20c, and inferior at 18 1/2c to 19c.

Bacon is steady and quiet, with demand fair, with generally moderate offerings. We quote red brush, 2 1/2c to 3c; red tips, 3 1/2c to 4c; green stalk, 4 1/2c to 5c; and black, 5 1/2c to 6c.

Cheese is in fair consumptive demand and steady. The receipts are ample and prime to choice factory at 10 1/2c to 11c per lb.

Coffee is in fair demand for consumption and the market is steady. Delivered to consumers at 12c for Young's, 14c for Hooking Valley and Muskogee, and 15c for Kankawha, and 12c for Oke. Is in light demand and steady and ample offerings. Gas-house 6c, city manufactured 7c and crushed at 7c to 7 1/2c, and 20 more per lb. delivered to consumers.

Eggs are firm with only moderate receipts and the demand fair and selling at 14 1/2c to 15c per dozen for fresh arrivals.

Fruit: Apples are in large supply, and quiet, at 12c to 15c for fair, and to extra varieties held at 20c per bu. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra varieties held at $2 per ton. Cranberries in moderate demand at 50c to 60c per bu. for good to choice. Quinces firm, with light offerings, at 30c to 40c per bu. Oranges at 80c to 90c for Louisiana per bu. Lemons at $1.50 to $2.00 per box.

Hay is steady, and quiet, with fair demand. It is quoted at $1.05 to $1.10 per ton for choice, and to extra